

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Alexandria recognizes its urban environment is irreplaceable and fragile, and must be preserved for future generations; and

WHEREAS, Earth Day is a national event established in 1970 to increase people's understanding of their environment and mobilize support for its protection; and

WHEREAS, there are approaches and technologies all of us can learn about and incorporate into our daily lives that will help protect and replenish our environment; and

WHEREAS, the National Arbor Day Foundation has recognized the City of Alexandria as a Tree City USA every year since 1983, and the City views trees as a critical part of our environment which enrich our lives aesthetically, as well as form the backbone of our urban habitat; and

WHEREAS, as part of the City of Alexandria's Arbor Day program, the City annually plants a tree on Alexandria Earth Day to symbolize the City's commitment to its natural environment; and

WHEREAS, the Alexandria Earth Day Committee, in partnership with the Alexandria Department of Recreation, Parks and Cultural Activities, sponsored the second annual Stream Clean-up at Four Mile Run Park and worked with the Adopt-a-Park partners to promote a City-wide park clean-up initiative on April 21; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Transportation and Environmental Services promotes a City-wide spring clean-up initiative and conducts the annual Hazardous Waste Collection Day on May 5;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, KERRY J. DONLEY, Mayor of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, and on behalf of the Alexandria City Council, do hereby proclaim June 2, 2001, as:

"ALEXANDRIA EARTH DAY AND ARBOR DAY" in the City of Alexandria and hereby commend all persons who are committed to and work towards preserving our environment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Alexandria to be affixed this 22nd day of May 2001.

KERRY J. DONLEY MAYOR
On behalf of the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia
